Finding a Job

Friend: Hello. How are you?

Job Seeker: I need a job. Where do I go?

Friend: Look in a newspaper. Jobs are in newspapers.

Job Seeker: I looked in a newspaper. I want to work in an office. The newspaper has restaurant jobs and cleaning jobs and driving jobs and daycare jobs...but no office jobs.

Friend: What about a computer? Look on a computer. Do you want full-time or part-time?

Job Seeker: I want full-time with benefits.

Friend: Look! A job fair! Go to the job fair. You need a suit, a resume, and letters of recommendation. Do you have a resume?

Job Seeker: I have a resume. I also have a nice business suit. I will go to the job fair.

Friend: We can also go to the library. The library can help.

Job Interview

Interviewer: Hello! Welcome to Dana's Daycare! My name is Dana Smith. How can I help you?

Job Seeker: Hello Ms. Smith. My name is Robin White. I have an interview.

Interviewer: Nice to meet you, Ms./Mr. White.

Job Seeker: Nice to meet you, too. Thank you for having me.

Interviewer: Do you have experience working with children?

Job Seeker: Yes, I have experience working with children. I worked at a school. I played with the children, and cleaned the classroom and helped the teacher.

Interviewer: What did you like best?

Job Seeker: I liked the children. I like working with children.

Interviewer: And what did you not like?

Job Seeker: I didn't like cleaning. I cleaned because I needed to clean. I didn't like it.

Interviewer: What about your education?

Job Seeker: I am a student. I want to be a teacher.

Interviewer: Very good. Any questions?

Job Seeker: Is this a full-time job or a part-time job?

Interviewer: This is a part time job. You will work mornings.

Job Seeker: That's fine. I can work mornings. Are there any benefits?

Interviewer: I'm sorry. No benefits. Not for our part-time employees.

Job Seeker: That's ok. Thank you for the interview.

Interviewer: You're welcome. We will call you. Thank you for coming in.

Job Seeker: Have a nice day!

Interviewer: You too.
