Finding a Job Dialog

Friend: Hello. What's up?

Job Seeker: Hi. I'm trying to find a job. I don't know where to look, though.

Friend: Did you look in the classified ads? There are a lot of jobs in the newspaper.

Job Seeker: I looked in the classified ads. I want to work in an office. I saw restaurant jobs and cleaning jobs and driving jobs and daycare jobs...but no office jobs.

Friend: What about online? You can do a job search online. Do you want full-time or part-time?

Job Seeker: I want full-time with benefits.

Friend: Look! The paper says there's going to be a job fair. That's a good way to find a job.

Job Seeker: When is it?

Friend: Tomorrow from ten to three. It says dress nice and bring some resumes. Do you have a resume?

Job Seeker: I have a resume. I also have a nice business suit. But I can't go to the job fair.

Friend: Why not? It's the perfect place to go for a job!

Job Seeker: My boss doesn't know I'm looking for a new job. I work tomorrow from nine to five.

Friend: Oh, right. Let's try the computer. We can also go to the library. The library can help.

Job Interview

Interviewer: Hello! Welcome to Dana's Daycare! My name is Dana Smith. How can I help you?

Job Seeker: Hello Ms. Smith. My name is Robin White. I'm here for a job interview at two o'clock.

Interviewer: Nice to meet you, Ms./Mr. White. You're right on time. Please come into my office.

Job Seeker: Nice to meet you, too. Thank you for having me.

Interviewer: Now, can you tell me about your job experience? I see on your resume that you worked in a daycare before.

Job Seeker: Yes, I worked at a daycare for four years. I supervised the toddlers, ages two-three. I played games with the children, and cleaned the classroom and helped when they needed help.

Interviewer: What did you like about working in a daycare?

Job Seeker: I liked the children. I watched them learn and play and grow.

Interviewer: And what did you not like about working in a daycare?

Job Seeker: I didn't like cleaning. I cleaned because I needed to clean. I didn't like it.

Interviewer: What about your education? Do you have a degree?

Job Seeker: Not yet. I am a student. I am getting a degree in childhood education. I want to be a teacher.

Interviewer: Very good. Now, do you have any questions for me?

Job Seeker: Is this a full-time job or a part-time job?

Interviewer: This is a part time job. It is for the mornings, from six AM to eleven AM, Monday through Friday.

Job Seeker: That's fine. I can work in the mornings. Are there any benefits?

Interviewer: I'm sorry. Not for our part-time employees.

Job Seeker: That's ok. I understand. Thank you for the interview. When will I know if I got the job?

Interviewer: We will call you by the end of next week. Thank you for coming in.

Job Seeker: Have a nice day!

Interviewer: You too.
